General notes :

New for 2018 - Women's Madison also in Singen.

Junior Men: Once again, this series will be part of the German Bundesliga series, ensuring that there are a good number of teams on the start. All teams are eligible for daily qualification round.

Men's and Women's Madison Events are restricted to 15 teams. Teams will be notified of their acceptance or rejection.

For Sprint Events, after 200m qualification, the men's sprint proceeds with 12 riders, and the women's sprint with 8 riders.

We will send more detailed information (Program, Starter-lists etc.) nearer to the to time of the events. For making travel arrangements, please assume that the racing in Singen will start at 12:00 and will finish in Dudenhofen around 18:00 (subject to delays).

Last year we saw some fantastic racing, and with many nations represented, a great atmosphere. We would be glad to welcome you and your athletes to the tournament this year. Although we cannot help with travel or hotel costs, we would be glad to try and help if you have any problems. Entries (Names + UCI license code) for all four days' competition should be sent to me, preferably in tabular form:

Travel

The track addresses at the top of this document should work when pasted into Google maps, but please also use the german postcode numbers - There is more than one Öschelbronn in Germany. Similarly Germany also has multiple Dudenhofens and Oberhausens !

The four tracks are (from south to north):

Singen, Öschelbronn (labelled Gäufelden), Oberhausen and Dudenhofen

Airports

Frankfurt am Main is Germany's biggest airport. (About 50mins North of Dudenhofen)

Sometimes it is cheaper (and nicer) to fly to smaller airports:

Stuttgart (East side of map - <http://www.flughafen-stuttgart.de/>)

Straßburg (Bottom west of Map - <http://strasbourg.aeroport.fr>)

Baden-Baden (Middle of map, near Rastatt - Baden Airpark / Ryanair <https://www.baden-airpark.de/startseite.html>)

Basel (South - <http://www.euroairport.com/en/>)

Friedrichshafen (South - east <http://www.fly-away.de/>)

Attention ! This is a holiday weekend, so traffic travelling south from around Stuttgart (i.e. to Singen) can be heavy on the Thursday night / Friday morning.
